CHURCH OF SOUTH INDIA

The Council of CSI Congregations in North America

ALMANAC 2026

Motto: "Anchored in Hope"

Introduction

By the grace of God, the CSI Almanac has once again been published and adapted for our North American community. This year's motto for the Diocese is "Anchored in Hope," inspired by Hebrews 6:19: "We have this hope as an anchor for the soul, firm and secure."

The themes and lessons for Sundays and other Feast/Commemoration days are drawn from Year A of the revised three-cycle common lectionary, prepared by the Worship and Mission Commission of the Communion of Churches in India (Joint Council of the CSI, CNI, and the Mar Thoma Church). The CSI Liturgy Committee has prepared the collects, aligning them with the lectionary themes.

The readings for weekdays follow Year B of the Daily Readings prepared by the CSI Synod Liturgy Committee. The Old Testament is covered once every three years, while the New Testament is covered twice in that timeframe. A table of Psalms for daily reading is also provided.

Additionally, themes and prayers for the Prayer Octave for Christian Unity 2026, prepared by the World Council of Churches, are included to encourage local congregations to join the worldwide Church in prayer and foster an experience of unity.

The relevant daily readings and collects for the United States and Canada for the year 2026 have been prepared by the Council of CSI Congregations in North America, with the permission of the CSI Synod.

This entire collection of collects and readings reflects this year's motto: "Anchored in Hope." In our current circumstances, let us all anchor our hope in God's triumph.

Collect: Almighty God, the author and perfecter of our faith, thank you for intimidation in our life journey. You have shown us that courage is not expressed by being aggressive but by being assertive. We are threatened by the fear of shame and embarrassment due to our foolish past, fear of emotional pain due to very disturbing experiences, fear of physical threat on our lives, fear of rejection, criticism or failure. Eventually these fears make us abandon the call of God upon our lives. We pray that we be strengthened when we find our faith difficult or impossible, troubled by questions to which we can find no answer, unable to take the leap of faith and lives overwhelmed by sudden catastrophe, our hopes for the future crashed and faith in your purpose shaken. Speak and help us to hear your voice; lead us to see your hands; teach us to know your will and send us out to walk by faith. Amen.

Prayer 2: Almighty God, to whose glory we celebrate the dedication of this house of prayer: we praise you for the many blessings you have given to those who worship you here: and we pray that all who seek you in this place may find you, and being filled with the Holy Spirit, may become a living temple acceptable to you; through Jesus Christ our Son our Lord, who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and ever. Amen.

May 31	White ( Trinity Sunday )
June 1 to November 28	Green ( Pentecost Season )
November 29 to December 24 Morning	Purple ( Advent Season )

Significance of the Liturgical Colors

Note:

This note is added to help those congregations that use Liturgical colors.

- White is the color for the festal periods from Christmas Eve to the festival of Epiphany, from Easter Day to the eve of Pentecost, and for Trinity Sunday. It is also used for marriages, thanksgiving services, harvest festivals, the feast of dedication of a Church, and for feasts commemorating saints. White is suitable for baptism, confirmation, and ordination, though red may be preferred.
- Green is the color for ordinary Sundays. It is used between Epiphany and Ash Wednesday, and between Trinity Sunday and Advent Sunday.

- Purple is the color for the Advent season and Lenten season and is therefore used from the first Sunday in Advent to the fourth Sunday in Advent; from Ash Wednesday until Holy Saturday. However, white may be preferred at the Holy Communion service on Maundy Thursday. Purple is recommended for funerals and for the commemoration of the faithful departed, although either black or white may also be used. White is preferred at the funeral of a child.
- Red is used on the feast of Pentecost, and during the week between Pentecost and Trinity Sunday. It is used on All Saints' Day and for the feasts of those saints venerated as martyrs. It is appropriate for any service that focuses on the gift of the Holy Spirit, and is therefore suitable for baptism, confirmation, and ordination.
- Orange / Saffron — CSI Episcopacy
CSI Episcopacy has instituted Orange/Saffron hand bands and stoles for its Bishops. Orange is the color of India, and it is on the top of the Indian Flag, symbolizing Indian spirituality of prayer, meditation, sacrifice, selflessness, and commitment. The CSI Episcopal vestments do not change the colors throughout the year, for Episcopacy stands for continuity of pastoral leadership, solemnity and dignity of liturgical continuance, and perpetual theological reflection and commitment to God and to His Word and to His Church.
